PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

By the authority conferred on me by Joint Resolution No. 1, passed by the Legislature of this State, approved March 19, 1886, entitled "A Resolution in reference to pension claims of New Jersey Volunteers," I desire to announce that the Congress of the United States, by act approved March 19, 1886, has increased the rate of pension for widows and dependent relatives of soldiers and sailors of the late war from eight to twelve dollars per month, and that the increased allowance will be paid on the vouchers of June 4, 1886, without any application therefor on the part of pensioners.

An amendment to the pension law is now pending and will probably pass increasing the rate of pension per month to minor children from two to four dollars. I presume the same kind of payment will be followed.

A bill is also pending in Congress granting a pension to the soldiers of the Mexican war. It will probably pass.

Any person entitled to increased pay or pension under the above or any other acts, can obtain advice or assistance by addressing the Comptroller, at Trenton, in which case the Administrative General will have the matter specially attended to at Washington without expense to the applicant.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the great seal of the State to be hereunto affixed, at Trenton, this thirteenth day of April, eighteen hundred and eighty-six.

LEON ABBETT.

By the Governor,
HENRY C. KELSEY,
Secretary of State.

NOTES ABOUT TOWN.

—Mr. Charles M. Davis is resting himself in Washington.

—Mr. William Antes expects to start for Montana next week.

—Miss Peele spent her Easter Sunday with friends in Brooklyn.

—Twelve new members were received in the German church last Sunday.

—Mr. William Puffer and wife spent last Sunday at the house of Mr. George Puffer.

—Miss Ella Crawford is visiting friends in Brooklyn where she will remain for a few days.

—Mr. Charles P. Svenson is building a large addition to his stores on Bloomfield Ave.

—Miss Schouler, of Buffalo, is visiting at the house of Mr. Darwin, on Ridgewood avenue.

—Contracts are signed for five new houses at Glen Ridge, and work will be begun on them immediately.

—Mr. E. L. O'Neill has removed his blacksmith shop to his new place on Bloomfield Ave. near Freeman's ice yard.

—The Silver Lake neighborhood folks are raising money to build a chapel. Two has been presented them on which they intend building.

The new house of Mr. James Hughes on Berkeley Ave. near Weaver's grove is nearly completed and presents a very respectable appearance.

—Does the Gas Company's contract allow them to light the lamps at eight o'clock on the 27th of April? If so the contract had better be amended.

At a recent meeting of the governing committee of the Glen Ridge Club, Mr.
G. Lee Stout was elected a member of that committee for the ensuing year.

Messrs. Hemstreet & Harrison have opened a new store, in Mr. Svenson's building, on the corner of Bloomfield avenue and Orange street, in addition to their other store.

The present owner of Weavers grove, Mr. Krach, is making extensive alterations and improvements in the grove, which will make this a very attractive place for picnics.

—The gravel used on the roads this year seems to be the ordinary observer to be, being nearer sand than gravel. The experts claim it is the best for the purpose. Time will show.

—The house of Mr. Theodore M. Nevius, being built on Ridgewood avenue, is to be one of the most picturesque houses in the neighborhood. Mr. Nevius hopes to get into it in September.

—The Town Committee at its last meeting adopted a profile of a grade for Woodland avenue, prepared by Mr. Joseph K.
Oakes and it is expected that the avenue will be soon reduced to that grade.

—The trees on Conger street have been trimmed up. This is an indication that the city is getting into shape for something besides planting to make it grow properly. Most people do not seem to realize this, hence slow growth and scraggy form.

—While opening clams a few days ago, John T. Griffith found a very pretty pearl. It is about one quarter of an inch long, the top being an amethyst color, while the bottom is a pure white.
It does not show the slightest flaw under a powerful glass.

—Mr. Henry Lindenmeyr has bought the Thompson estate adjoining his residence on upper Broad street and will immediately begin the erection of a house upon it. It is his intention to build three or four substantial houses upon this property as soon as the city water can be introduced.

—Miss Josephine Earl and Miss Jennie Morris have been spending the present week in Washington, D. C. They accompanied a party from Montclair, made up of the graduating class in the High School, their parents and friends, who are spending a week of pleasure and profit at the Capital under the guidance of Mr. Spalding, principal of the school.

—We are glad to know that our colored friends of St. Marks church on Bloomfield Ave. are as prosperous as we find them to be. Their new pastor, Rev.
Mr. Murray is a most excellent preacher, and bids fair to be extremely useful among the people of his own race, who are exhibiting a great deal of enterprise.

—Friends are invited to a service of Song to be held in the Baptist church Sunday at 3.30 P. M. by the Reform Club. The Sullivan street quartette will be present and favor the meeting with their choice selections. Addresses by Mr. Fred Silleck of Brooklyn, and by Mr. C. B. Rogers of the Hackensack Reform Club.

—The Young People's Society of Westminster church held its regular meeting last Monday, and elected the following officers: Pres., Henry B. Sheldon, Jr.; Vice-Pres., Frank D. Ward; Treas., Oscar Mitchell; Sec., Lily B. Day. After the regular business the society amused itself by endeavoring to throw bags filled with beans through a hole in a board, this improving exercise being concluded, the meeting adjourned.

—At the last meeting of the Essex Co.
Building and Loan Association, 134 shares were taken of the second series of stock just opened. The new series of shares remain open at par until May 18.
Two loans were made, making the aggregate amount of loans made by the Association $5,400. The premium paid for loans at the last meeting was 3 and 3/4 per cent.

—Last Monday evening the butchers of our town met at Heckel's store and organized themselves under the name of Bloomfield Butchers' Protective Association. The following gentlemen were elected officers: John Hyde, President; Wm. Hill, Vice-President; David Post, Treasurer; Fred Heckel, Secretary. A motion was made and carried to close store at 7 1/2 o'clock P. M. Saturday except. ed.

—One of our citizens who is an early riser heard a loud cry of Stop thief! the other morning about six o'clock. Running out of his front gate he was just in time to put out his foot in front of the first of two rapidly approaching pedestrians. The first pedestrian and the citizen rolled over on the sidewalk. In an instant the second pedestrian was on the spot and at once proceeded to bang the head of the first comer. When this had ceased to give him pleasure he hauled the banged man before a justice of the peace and accused him of stealing some clothing in the early morning.

—Special services, appropriate to the time, were held in the First Presbyterian church on Easter Sunday. Mr. Norman, leader of the choir, was present and opened the services with an organ voluntary of great beauty. An Easter Anthem was sung by the choir at each service with fine effect. In the evening, Mr. Norman sang a solo in a rich, full tone, to the great satisfaction of the audience. Rev.
Dr. Lockwood preached in the morning from Psalms 17: 15, showing the analogy between the changes of earth and the great change which awaits us when we shall awake with the likeness of God and shall be satisfied. In the evening the beauties of the world were the occasion for renewed exhortations to duty. The tables, desk, stands and platforms were handsomely ornamented with flowers, some of which were used after the services to cheer the hearts of invalid members of the congregation.

—Easter election, at St. Paul's church East Orange: James Wm. Wiseman, and Stephen Gilson, Wardens; H. W. Pinnegar, Charles Frank, M. A. Dailey, Thomas D. Chandler, and Lucius McAdams, en Gilson, and Charles Frank Deputies to the Diocesan Convention.

—The concert for the benefit of Hope Sunday-school of which mention was made last week, will take place on Tuesday evening next. In addition to the programme then given, the orchestra under the direction of Mr. J. P. Fischer will render two pieces. Mrs. Emma Wheeler Smith will sing Braga's Angel Serenade, with a violin obligato by Mrs. E. Walter Morris. Contralto solos will be given by Miss Mary Reilly; baritone, by Mr. Jos.
Stanford Brown; accompanist, Mr. Walter F. Haan. Selections on the piano will be given by Miss Grace Van Wagenen, of Roseville, and Miss Emma Burns, of Passaic. Mrs. Morris, Mrs.
Ballantine, and Mr. Morris will render a trio of violin, flute and piano. Selected readings will also be given by Miss Jessie Burns.

—"Racing Down the Rapids," A Caprice Brilliante, is a new piece of music which has just made its appearance. Our townsmen, Prof. Frank W. Lawrence of Watessing, is the composer, and he has had it copyrighted in the United States and Canada. It is dedicated to Mrs.
Wm. Laing and Miss Florence Milne of Essex Centre, Canada, and is descriptive of a trip from the Thousand Islands to Montreal, through the Rapids Gallopes, Rapid de Plan, Lake St. Francis, Rapids Long South, Rapids Cotian and Rapids Lochine. It is in pamphlet form and occupies eleven pages.

—The Library of the late Rev. John Neander of Brooklyn, has been purchased by a number of his German friends and presented to the German Theological Club. There are about a thousand volumes, in German, Hebrew and English. Mr. Neander was of Hebrew extraction. Like the famous Neander, he adopted his name, signifying a new man, on becoming a Christian. He was for many years pastor of the First German Presbyterian church of Brooklyn, and a missionary also to the Jews. The books were received at the Seminary on Thursday last. Among them is a set of the Talmud.

—Mr. Thomas B. Baxter has sold the brick house No. 7 on Lake street, to Dr.
Charles D. Bennett, of Newark.

The Tennis Club.

The Bloomfield Lawn Tennis Club has had its grounds put in order, and the playing season will begin to-day. Believing that many of the young ladies and gentlemen in our town would be glad to enjoy the advantages offered by the courts, the club has decided to allow an increase in its membership, which has heretofore been restricted to twenty-five, and has reduced its membership fee to $5.

A junior membership is being established which is intended to give the use of the courts to girls and boys under eighteen years of age, when not occupied by older members.

A subscription to the junior membership will include all children in the family of the subscriber.

Summer visitors on the introduction of a member may receive a card for the season by payment of $5. Applications for membership may be made at any time and will be presented to the club at its next meeting.

At the opening of the season each member will be provided with two regulation tennis balls, and additional balls can be obtained at cost price. All players will be required to wear tennis shoes.

T. E. WILSON,
JOHN CAPEN,
FRANK G. TOWER,
Ex. Committee.

Christ Church.

At the Episcopal church last Sunday the Easter music announced in our previous issue was effectively rendered by the Misses Clark and Davis and Messrs.
Brucklos and Healy, Mrs. Schuyler presiding at the organ with her accustomed ability.

The floral decorations were unusually fine and the church was full. The rector delivered an appropriate Easter salutation and the offerings for the floating debt amounted to $160.

At the annual parish meeting Monday evening, after the reading of the Treasurer's report, the rector appointed Messrs.
F. G. Tower and Wm. Poe to act as tellers and the results of the election were announced by the chair as follows: Wardens, Joseph L. Clark and Henry K. Bicker.

Vestryman, Edwin A. Rayner, Newton
Smith, David C. Townsend, S. Grover Baldwin and Wm. M. Ash.

Deputies to Convention, Fred T. Camp, Charles S. Squire and Wm. Poe.

A pleasing incident of the meeting was the reading of a paper, signed by all the members of the old vestry, congratulating the rector on the completion of the ninth year of his incumbency, placing on record the expression of their kindly personal regards and high appreciation of his faithfulness and ability, and assuring him of their hearty co-operation and support in the future.

At a meeting of the newly elected vestry, subsequently held, Edwin A. Rayner was chosen Secretary of the Corporation and Joseph L. Clark Treasurer, and the Committee on repairs was instructed to consider and report on the subject of enlarging the church, so as to meet the demand for pews.

To Mrs. WILLIAM H. MARTIN:

At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Bloomfield Building and Loan Association held on Friday evening April 23d, 1886, the Board all joined in wishing to tender to you and yours their heartfelt sympathy in the loss of your husband and their associate, William H. Martin, who has been a director of the Association since its organization.

In all his relations with them he was ever kindly and genial, and his memory will be cherished and his loss remembered with tender regret.

The Board testify to his devotion and usefulness and to their own sense of a personal loss in the death of one who was a true friend, a kind neighbor and an estimable citizen.

J. A. PELOURET, Secretary.

J. G. KEYLER, President.

—The announcement of such a work as Mr. Duffield's "English Hymns: Their Authors and History," is of great interest to all persons who have religious matter at heart. An extended extract, from the advance sheets, is given under "Literary Notes," in the present number of THE CITIZEN. The MS. is now passing through the press, with great rapidity and will appear during the month of May.

A DRUGGIST'S VERDICT: "During 30 years drug business, never have I sold an article giving such universal satisfaction as Palmer's 'Skin-Success.' People who suffered for years with various skin complaints are constantly returning perfectly cured to thank me for recommending 'Skin-Success.'"—G. R. Harris, J. C.
